

What story does "Hanabi" tell about Japan's International relation during Edo period

What story does "Hanabi" tell about Japan's International relation during Edo period

What do you think this picture is about?

This is....

What is the time period of this photo?

- A. Edo period
- B. Showa period
- C. Meiji Period

Source:

Europeana

Vuurwerk bij de Ryogoku brug

https://www.europeana.eu/en/item/90402/RP_P_196_0_281

PDM

What is the time period of this photo?

- A. Edo period
- B. Showa period
- C. Meiji Period

Source:

Europeana

Vuurwerk bij de Ryogoku brug

https://www.europeana.eu/en/item/90402/RP_P_196

0_281

PDM

The teacher provide these informations to the students:

The main ingredient for hanabi , is gun powder. Before Edo period, it has not been used in Japan. Due to trade and diplomatic relation, It was originated.

Now the mission for students:

Discuss with your friend and make a presentation for 5 minutes.

You should include:

Which countries have trade and diplomatic relation with japan during Edo period?

How was the relation between Japan and these countries?

Explain one another cultural aspect which came to japan from one of these countries and one cultural thing which moves to these country from Japan.